

The Children's Trust Needs You!

The Children's Trust needs your help to decide its priorities for the next three years. The three year Children and Young People's Plan will set out where and how the Trust and its members will concentrate their efforts – and will be especially important in these difficult times.

Carol Chambers, Director of Children and Young People's Services at Rutland County Council said "It is really important that we get the priorities in the Plan right, and that means that we need children, young people and their families in Rutland to let us know what is important to them. Over 50 people have already given us their views, but we need more!"

If you want to get involved and let the Trust know about the areas in which you would like it to concentrate its work please visit www.rutnet.co.uk/childrenstrust or email cellis@rutland.gov.uk.

The Trust brings together a range of organisations working together to help children in Rutland achieve more. Its work ranges from improving play provision to enabling better health provision. As a parent, child or young person – have your say and ensure that the Trust is providing the services which mean most to you.
